

The Economic Value of Central Carolina Community College

Central Carolina Community College (CCCC) creates a significant positive impact on the business community and generates a return on investment to its major stakeholder groups—students, taxpayers, and society. Using a two-pronged approach that involves an economic impact analysis and an investment analysis, this study calculates the benefits received by each of these groups. Results of the analysis reflect fiscal year (FY) 2019-20.

THE CCCC SERVICE AREA, NC

ECONOMIC IMPACT ANALYSIS

In FY 2019-20, CCCC added $158 million in income to the CCCC Service Area economy, a value approximately equal to 2.1% of the region's total gross regional product (GRP). Expressed in terms of jobs, CCCC's impact supported 3,283 jobs. For perspective, the activities of CCCC and its students support one out of every 32 jobs in the CCCC Service Area.

OPERATIONS SPENDING IMPACT

- CCCC employed 859 full-time and part-time faculty and staff. Payroll amounted to $36.8 million, much of which was spent in the region for groceries, mortgage and rent payments, dining out, and other household expenses. The college spent another $18.7 million on day-to-day expenses related to facilities, supplies, and professional services.
- The net impact of the college's operations spending added $43 million in income to the regional economy in FY 2019-20.

CONSTRUCTION SPENDING IMPACT

- CCCC invests in construction each year to maintain its facilities, create additional capacities, and meet its growing educational demands, generating a short-term infusion of spending and jobs in the regional economy.
- The net impact of CCCC's construction spending in FY 2019-20 was $3.2 million in added income for the CCCC Service Area.

STUDENT SPENDING IMPACT

- Around 23% of credit students attending CCCC originated from outside the region. Some of these students relocated to the CCCC Service Area.

* For the purposes of this analysis, the CCCC Service Area is comprised of Chatham, Harnett, and Lee Counties.

In addition, some in-region students, referred to as retained students, would have left the CCCC Service Area for other educational opportunities if not for CCCC. These relocated and retained students spent money on groceries, mortgage and rent payments, and other living expenses at regional businesses.

- The expenditures of relocated and retained students in FY 2019-20 added $4.9 million in income to the CCCC Service Area economy.

ALUMNI IMPACT

- Over the years, students have studied at CCCC and entered or re-entered the workforce with newly-acquired knowledge and skills. Today, thousands of these former students are employed in the CCCC Service Area.
- The net impact of CCCC's former students currently employed in the regional workforce amounted to $106.8 million in added income in FY 2019-20.

INVESTMENT ANALYSIS

STUDENT PERSPECTIVE

- CCCC's FY 2019-20 students paid a present value of $8.8 million to cover the cost of tuition, fees, and supplies. They also forwent $27.6 million in money that they would have earned had they been working instead of attending college.
- In return for their investment, students will receive a cumulative present value $209.5 million in increased earnings over their working lives. This translates to a return of $5.80 in higher future earnings for every dollar students invest in their education. Students' average annual rate of return is 24.4%.

TAXPAYER PERSPECTIVE

- Taxpayers provided CCCC with $39.5 million of funding in FY 2019-20. In return, they will benefit from added tax revenue, stemming from students' higher lifetime earnings and increased business output, amounting to $62.3 million. A reduced demand for government-funded services in North Carolina will add another $5.4 million in benefits to taxpayers.
- For every dollar of public money invested in CCCC, taxpayers will receive $1.70 in return, over the course of students' working lives. The average annual rate of return for taxpayers is 4.1%.

SOCIAL PERSPECTIVE

- In FY 2019-20, North Carolina invested $95.2 million to support CCCC. In turn, the North Carolina economy will grow by $690.4 million, over the course of students' working lives. Society will also benefit from $15.6 million of public and private sector savings.
- For every dollar invested in CCCC in FY 2019-20, people in North Carolina will receive $7.40 in return, for as long as CCCC's FY 2019-20 students remain active in the state workforce.
