

The Economic Value of Randolph Community College

Randolph Community College (RCC) creates a significant positive impact on the business community and generates a return on investment to its major stakeholder groups—students, taxpayers, and society. Using a two-pronged approach that involves an economic impact analysis and an investment analysis, this study calculates the benefits received by each of these groups. Results of the analysis reflect fiscal year (FY) 2019-20.

RANDOLPH COUNTY, NC

ECONOMIC IMPACT ANALYSIS

In FY 2019-20, RCC added $101.4 million in income to the Randolph County economy, a value approximately equal to 2.4% of the county's total gross regional product (GRP). Expressed in terms of jobs, RCC's impact supported 2,351 jobs. For perspective, the activities of RCC and its students support one out of every 27 jobs in Randolph County.

OPERATIONS SPENDING IMPACT

- RCC employed 770 full-time and part-time faculty and staff. Payroll amounted to $18.7 million, much of which was spent in the county for groceries, mortgage and rent payments, dining out, and other household expenses. The college spent another $10.3 million on day-to-day expenses related to facilities, supplies, and professional services.
- The net impact of the college's operations spending added $22.3 million in income to the county economy in FY 2019-20.

STUDENT SPENDING IMPACT

- Some in-county students, referred to as retained students, would have left Randolph County for other educational opportunities if not for RCC. These retained students spent money on groceries, mortgage and rent payments, and other living expenses at county businesses.
- The expenditures of retained students in FY 2019-20 added $3.3 million in income to the Randolph County economy.
